

Acknowledgments

The development of this course was made possible with the help of many individuals, but I would particularly like to thank the following for their exceptional participation:

Alex Kutsick of Rational University for his course development standards, instructional design expertise, and attention to detail. Alex is personally responsible for ensuring that there is a high-level of consistency throughout this course.

Gary Bastoky of Rational University for his graphics support.

Last but certainly not least, DeAnna Roberts and the Rational University production team for their logistical support.
